Why are you interested in living at Bread & Roses?

When would you like to move in?

How long would you plan to stay (we ask that you be able to commit for at least 1 year)?

B&R has two houses – 162 Cambridge St. and 405 Westcott St. Are you open to living in either? If not, which are you interested in and why?

What brings you to/keeps you in Syracuse? What are your plans for the next few years?

What does activism look like to you? How does activism play a role in your life?

What does environmentalism / sustainability mean to you? How does it play a role in your life?

Have you lived in other collective living arrangements and / or worked in consensus process?
What were they like?

What core principles / values do you look for in a collective house and the people you live with?

Do you like to cook? How would you describe your diet and approach to food?

Living at B&R is more than just a room in a cool house. How do you imagine participating?

Are there specific skills / talents / interests you look forward to bringing to B&R?

Are there others that you hope to learn from us?

Do you have any requirements for your living environment you would like to share at this time?
(ex: accommodations, sensitivities, needs, etc.)

If we aren't able to accept you right now, should we contact you about future openings?
How long should we keep you on our list of potential housemates?

If you were a button/bumpersticker, what would you say?
